

The actions of the NAB are simply a way of trying to use legal means for them to try and protect what is clearly an inferior service that they provide vs. Satellite Radio service. I benefit tremendously from the various Traffic and weather channels provided by XM, especially when travelling, I can easily get local weather reports for cities I'm travelling to.